

CEA GUIDANCE

CEA guidance documents contain detailed information about the examination process and can also be accessed via its website www.ccea.org.uk/summer-awarding. The website contains detailed information including 'Frequently asked Questions' to support learners and schools during this time. The podcasts are also very informative.

The podcasts, for arrangements for AS and A2 which have been tweeted by CCEA: https://twitter.com/CCEA_info/status/1257718415130800130 can be found on this page by scrolling down: <https://ccea.org.uk/summer-awarding>. They are very helpful and informative.

Consultation on the Appeals Process for Summer 2020 awarding of GCSE, AS and A Level qualifications 7 May 2020

Following the Education Minister's announcement on 16 April 2020 outlining the alternative awarding arrangements for GCSE and AS/A Level qualifications for summer 2020, we were instructed to develop an appropriate and robust appeals process.

An online appeals public consultation document is now live until 21 May 2020.

The links below include a letter from CCEA's CEO Justin Edwards regarding the appeals process and further information on the consultation.
